

CHEYENNE WILL GREET COLONEL

Has Accepted Invitation to Attend Annual Frontier Day Celebration.

TOWN IS GROOMING ITSELF

Preparations for Jollification Include Western Tournament With Big Military Features.

Cheyenne, Wyo., May 4.—Chairman E. W. Stone and M. H. Hartung of the 1910 Frontier day committee have returned from Denver, where they conferred with F. G. Bonfils, proprietor of the Denver Post, who recently returned from Africa, where he met Col. Roosevelt and extended invitations to hundreds of thousands of western people to visit this section upon his return from the far east. Col. Roosevelt was unable to return to the United States via the Pacific coast, and this prevented him from accepting the invitations of Pacific coast and intermountain cities, but Mr. Bonfils did prevail upon him to visit the Frontier celebration in this city on Aug. 24-25-26, 1910. It was due wholly to the arguments of Mr. Bonfils that Col. Roosevelt consented to come to Cheyenne. The Denver editor pointed to Col. Roosevelt's love for the western plains, the cowboys and the excitement incident to the roping of steers and the work of "busting" bronchos, and succeeded in arousing in the distinguished American a desire to visit the west and renew acquaintances with the cowboy and the "bronc." Then followed the invitation of Cheyenne people extended by Senator Warren. Col. Roosevelt's acceptance followed immediately.

And now that the colonel is coming, the people of Cheyenne propose to do everything in their power to make his visit not only a memorable one, but enjoyable in every particular. Additional committees are being appointed to have charge of his entertainment, special features, etc. The Cheyenne club house, the historical home of the Wyoming cattle baron, will be vacated early in August, renovated and decorated and placed at the disposal of Col. Roosevelt. The finest saddle horses in the west and a number of automobiles will be kept in front of the clubhouse ready for instant use.

SPECIAL ARRANGEMENTS.

Out of Frontier park a special stand will be erected inside the big paddock and will be for the exclusive use of Col. Roosevelt. Mr. Bonfils and other distinguished guests. Here the noted statesman will have an unrestricted view of the wild horse races, steer roping and broncho "busting."

On one of the mornings of the three days that Col. Roosevelt will be in Cheyenne there will be a grand military parade, participated in by 4,000 troops from Fort D. A. Russell and, on another forenoon there will be a big military review at the brigade post. These features will be in charge of Brig.-Gen. Hoyt, commandant at Fort D. A. Russell, and the troops that will participate will include the Eleventh Infantry, Fourth and Thirteenth artillery, the Ninth cavalry, the signal corps, the engineer corps, hospital corps, three military bands, etc. The review will afford Col. Roosevelt an opportunity to inspect one of the largest army posts in the United States, and to get a line on the condition and efficiency of American troops, for not only will all branches of the service be represented, but the organizations at Fort D. A. Russell are regarded as being among the most efficient in the army. It is expected that leading army officers will be ordered here from all parts of the United States to participate in this review.

The indications are that thousands of cowboys, rangers and roughriders will come here from all over the country to participate in the celebration and greet the distinguished ex-cowboy-president, while there will be the greatest outpouring of citizens generally ever witnessed in any western city.

Cheyenne feels the importance of the occasion, and the necessity for making good, and it goes without saying that Cheyenne will make good and with a vengeance.

MAY TAKE IN FARMERS.

Gompers Working on Plan to Get Them Into Federation of Labor.

St. Louis, May 4.—A plan for a political union of the American Federation of Labor and the Farmers' Educational and Co-operative Union, of America, with its 3,000,000 members, is being worked out at a conference between labor union and farmers' union officials in this city, coincident with the farmers' rally, now in progress.

Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, is behind the movement. He, with Frank Morrison, secretary of the American Federation of Labor, and 20 other labor officials, has been in executive session with the farmers' executive committee for three days, and it was announced tonight that his plan probably will be adopted.

Gompers denies any intention of forming a new political party. He hopes, he says, to induce the agriculturalists of the country to nominate and elect men favorable to the betterment of labor conditions, regardless of political affiliations.

INDICTED WHITE SLAYER TELLS OF THE TRAFFIC

New York, May 4.—Harry Levenson, under indictment as a "white slaver," told the district attorney today that there are at least three "stockades" in New York in each of which from five to ten young girls are kept ready night and day for instant delivery wherever they may be wanted.

Little effort, said Levenson, is made to recruit women from the street. The stockades are filled with young girls who are unhappy at home or live unhappy lives on their own earnings, or long for good clothes, gayety and freedom from restraint. Well dressed women single out such cases, he said, first winning attention from an invitation to dinner, where they describe the ease and pleasure of the alternative they propose.

The girls delivered to the stockades, it then becomes the business of the proprietor to place his merchandise. In his end of the traffic Levenson said he was a specialist. His business was to find a house where girls were wanted. The house paid the stockade keeper a lump sum and allowed Levenson 10 per cent of the girl's earnings.

There was no further word tonight of the little Hastings girl, 11 years old, who is missing, and it is feared she may have been murdered.

PORTLAND'S SCHEME FOR PLAYGROUNDS

Out-of-Door Recreation Is Planned by The City Park Board of Coast City.

(Special to The News.)

Portland, Or., May 5.—Out-of-door recreation for all the people of Portland is planned by the city park board and by next summer, these public playgrounds for young and old will be equipped fully. From the little tots who roll in the sand piles to the grown-ups who plunge into the swimming pools, none will be overlooked. The public park system will include facilities for all kinds of athletic sports and assembly rooms for for-mies. The plan goes a step farther than is usually the case in park systems of American cities.

Work has already been started on a big swimming pool for one park, and it is expected to be completed by July 1. An indoor gymnasium, with reading rooms, shower baths and plunge, will be built alongside and the same roof will cover a large auditorium with a stage for lectures, concerts and amateur dramas.

A running track will be built out of doors for boys and nearby there will be recreation grounds for girls, with gymnasium and all apparatus. There will also be wading pools and sand piles for the little tots. It is expected to make these park playgrounds the center for many activities in the different parts of the city. The young people will be given an opportunity to dance and games of all kinds will be provided.

A project now under consideration is the making of each of these centers a branch of the public library. This move, it is felt, would draw largely to the public interest in the recreation grounds in the public parks. To arouse interest still further, it is planned to make each center distinctive in every feature, so that a healthy rivalry may be stimulated, one community contending with another in athletics and forensics.

Y. M. C. A. MEMBERS SUSPENDED FOR SUNDAY BALL

Chicago, May 5.—Thirteen members of the Elgin Y. M. C. A., suspended for playing ball on Sunday, have made formal protest against the directors' action, making the plea that directors enjoy Sunday recreation in golfing, automobilism, tennis and hunting.

CO-EDUCATION.

Dean Briggs of Harvard Thinks It Is Not Desirable.

Cambridge, Mass., May 5.—Leharon Briggs, president of Radcliffe college, and dean of Harvard, thinks co-education in eastern colleges is not desirable. He says:

"Contrary to the experience of privately endowed institutions of learning, the state universities as far as I can judge, have made co-education work practically. So, too, out west reports seem favorable to the perpetuation of the system there. Co-education has been a failure here in the east for many reasons and perhaps the strongest, and a sufficient one, has been that the students themselves, the men and the women, have objected to it."

FORECLOSURE ON MORSE RESIDENCE

New York, May 5.—Foreclosure proceedings are pending against the Charles W. Morse residence in Fifth avenue, which is still occupied by Mrs. Morse. The property was sold last year under a second mortgage and the title has been held since then by a corporation which was declared to have been acting for Mr. Morse. The corporation mortgaged the property again for $350,000, and it is on this mortgage that foreclosure proceedings have been begun. The complainant states that interest amounting to $5,200 and taxes of $3,400 are unpaid.

LIVED 103 YEARS.

New Haven, Conn., May 5.—Bernard White, the oldest man in Connecticut, is dead at his home here of old age. He was 103 years old. Five children, 23 grandchildren and five great-grandchildren survive.
